Action Plan Summary:

Main committees & workgroups: Strategic Planning, Membership – Lived Experience Advisory Board, Rating, Ranking, & Evaluation, Assessment, Housing, and Professional Development.

Each group will establish its structure, goals, & outcomes as they fit with CoC's overall structure and governance. They will assign ownership of tasks toward completing group goals & outcomes & define the most significant goals to achieve for 2025.

The System Performance study focused on reducing the Length of Time (LOTH) and Returns to Homelessness (RH) & will now review the results of the community focus groups & interviews conducted in 2024.

Housing will determine the direction they will take during 2024.

RR&E will begin to identify challenges and adjustments to new project application forms and scoring tools. It will also work with DEI to strengthen the DEI portion of the scoring process and determine the best measures for performance evaluation.

DEI – work with RR&E to tighten up the DEI portion of the scoring tool for CoC competition; expand work done in 2024 to organize a Lived Experience Advisory Board, including active recruiting of members; develop a DEI tool for organizations requesting assistance in writing their own agency's statement that complements the CoC statement.

Second Quarter: April – June 2025

They will review & assess their first quarter activities & revise where necessary to achieve their chosen outcomes and measures.

Third Quarter: July – September 2025
